THOMAS COOPER. More About Cain's Wife.

To the Editor: Adam, at the time of the murder of Abel, had only two children, Cain and Abel. After the death of Abel but two male persons remained.

Adam was the first person created. Now, the question is. Where did Cain get his wife? Certainly not from among his father's daughters, as "A. R. S. C." writes. Adam and Eve were not blessed with any daughters until the son of Cain.

Hence he must have met his wife among other people. And, strange enough, Cain succeeded in getting a wife, despite the fact that he was a nurderer. How many women would to-day marry a pub-
